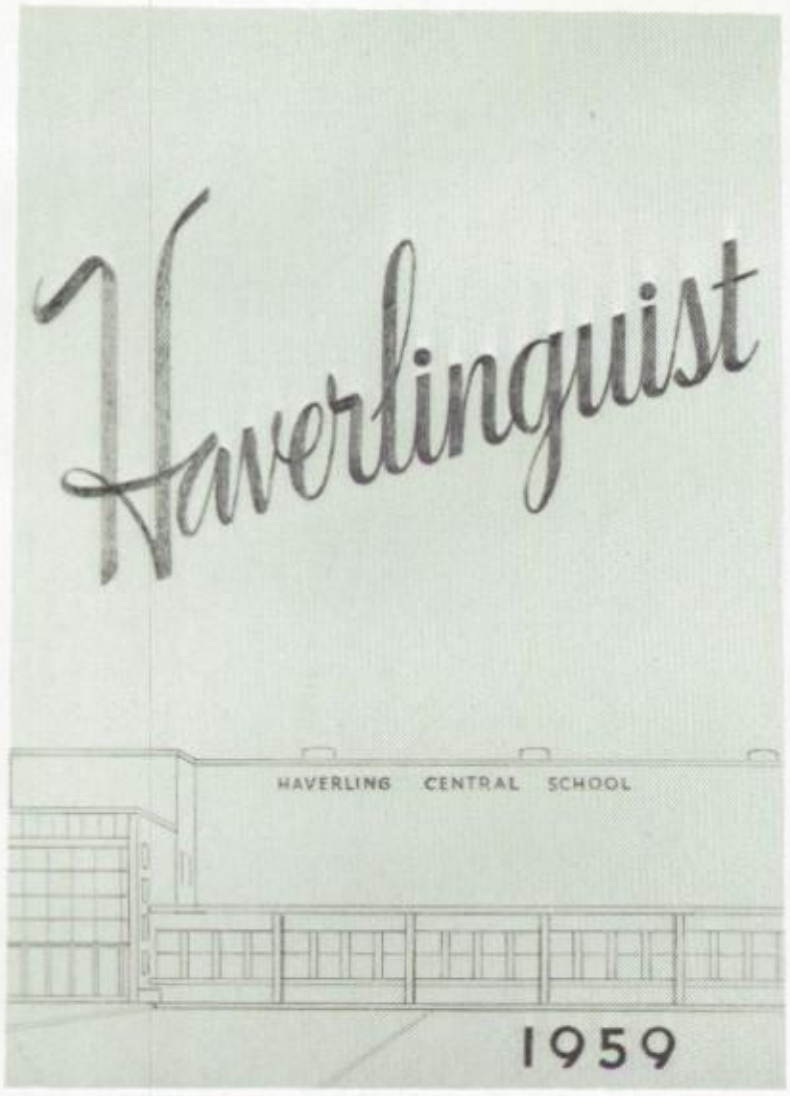
HAVERLING CENTRAL SCHOOL



Presented by

The Senior Class

HAVERLING CENTRAL SCHOOL

BATH, NEW YORK

Foreword

In presenting this evidence of our efforts, the Haverlinguist, we have endeavored to keep in mind the missions of the book: to portray Haverling Central School, and to give to the members of the Class of 1959 a permanent record of memories, which are cherished and everlasting.

If we have succeeded, we seek no praise; we have only attained our goal.

Haverlinguist Staff

From September to June the yearbook staff strives to make this year's book, the best yet. Initially, the book is a misty dream but the hard work and perseverance of the staff transform this dream into a reality giving Haverling's students our "masterpiece of words and pictures."

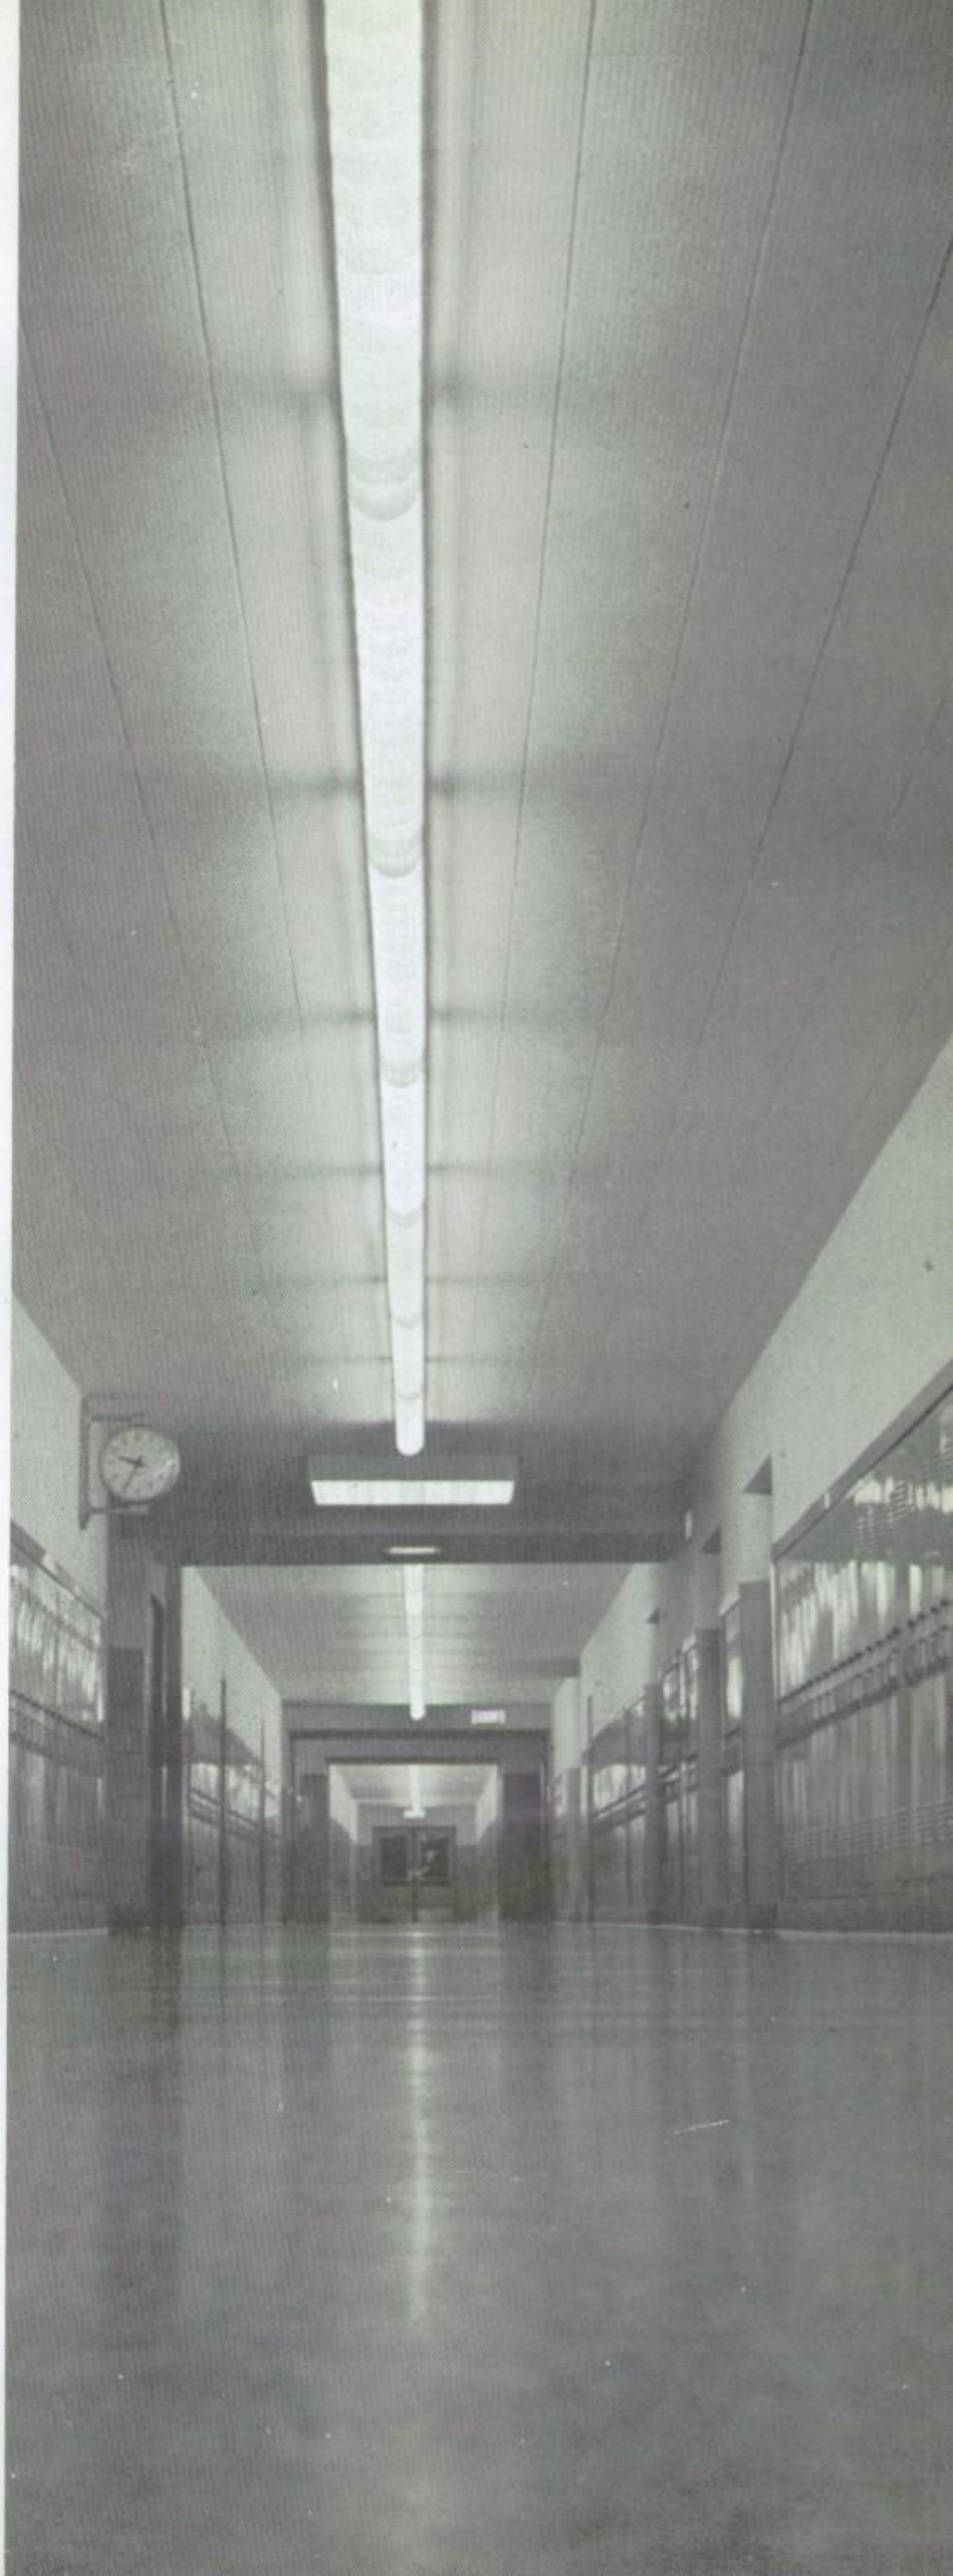
It's Lonely and Quiet



Dedication

In grateful appreciation for your unending loyalty to the cause of learning. Your unique ability to cheer us up with a smile and a kind word no matter what the time. Your warm personality, your guidance and inspiration which you have made a part of Haverling, we the class of 1959 dedicate this yearbook to you . . .

Elizabeth Finnerty

Board of Education

As Dr. James Bryant Conant, one of America's leading educators, said in a recent address, "The first requisite for a good public school system is a good school board."

We, at Haverling, are privileged to have a very good Board of Education.

This group is responsible for making policies of Haverling, a job which, although time-consuming, is skillfully executed by our school board.

Because of the education which they have provided for us, we, the students at Haverling give our sincere and grateful thanks to our Board of Education.

MR. WIGHTMAN, Superintendent of Schools

TO THE CLASS OF 1959:

I am pleased to have the opportunity of writing a few words in the 1959 Yearbook, and wish to extend my appreciation to the Haverlinguist staff for granting me this privilege.

First of all, may I extend congratulations to every member of the senior class. This year, your last in Haverling, will soon be over and you will have graduated from high school. I know this will be a proud moment for all of you and, although congratulations at this time are somewhat premature, I assure you they are no less genuine.

It seems to me that there are many things of which this class of '59 can be very proud. Yours is the largest class in the history of our school, and we are hopeful that at least a hundred diplomas can be given out at commencement time. You can boast of more scholarship winners than any previous class which is a good indication of a high overall scholastic ability. There is an abundance of talent in other fields, such as music, sports, dramatics, art, etc. But above all, it has been my observation that you are ladies and gentlemen, friendly and courteous, with a high sense of fair play for all. If you will hold on to and nurture these fine attributes your success in life is already assured.

Again may I congratulate you on having nearly completed your high school education. I can say that all of us at Haverling are the richer for having had the opportunity to associate with you, and we hope and trust that Haverling has given to you those qualities that will ensure rich and rewarding lives for each of you in the years that lie ahead.

VERNON E. WIGHTMAN

General Office Staff

Four smiling faces greet us as we pass the general office. The women who are there are part of the "behind the scenes" workers who help to make Haverling the wonderful school that it is.

Leona Sprague; Clara Hille; Mary Gleason; Marion Ormsby.

MR. NADEAU

Principal
Jr.-Sr. High School

To our beloved principal goes much of the credit for what we are today. Without his help and guidance throughout our high school years we would not be successful graduates of Haverling, ready to face the world with confidence. We offer Mr. Nadeau our thanks for everything he has done for us.

MR. LYON

Principal
Elementary School

As an early influence in our school lives, Mr. Lyon guided us through our years in grade school. This first influence is an important one and we are proud that we had Mr. Lyon for our elementary principal.

MR. ROCK

Vice Principal and Transportation Supervisor

To Mr. Rock, we give the credit for getting us to school on time, whether we liked it or not. We also know him as a business teacher and the guiding hand of this yearbook. We can truthfully say that we could never have published this book without him. Thank you, Mr. Rock, for being our friend and counselor.

High School Faculty

You, our teachers, have meant many things to us through our years of school. Through your efforts to give us knowledge, you have become our advisors, our helpers, and our most trusted friends. In your dedication to the task of fitting us for useful, happy lives, you have had unending patience and good humor. We shall never forget you or your sterling examples and in the years to come, we shall strive to live up to your great expectations.

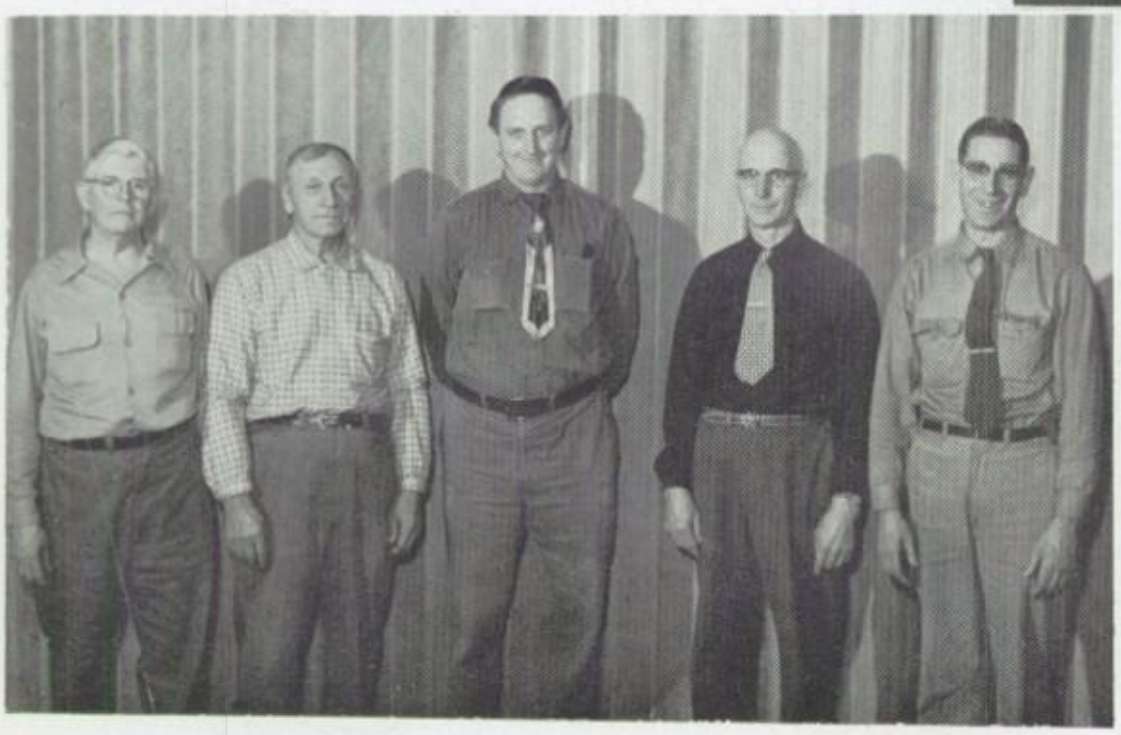
Faithful Staff

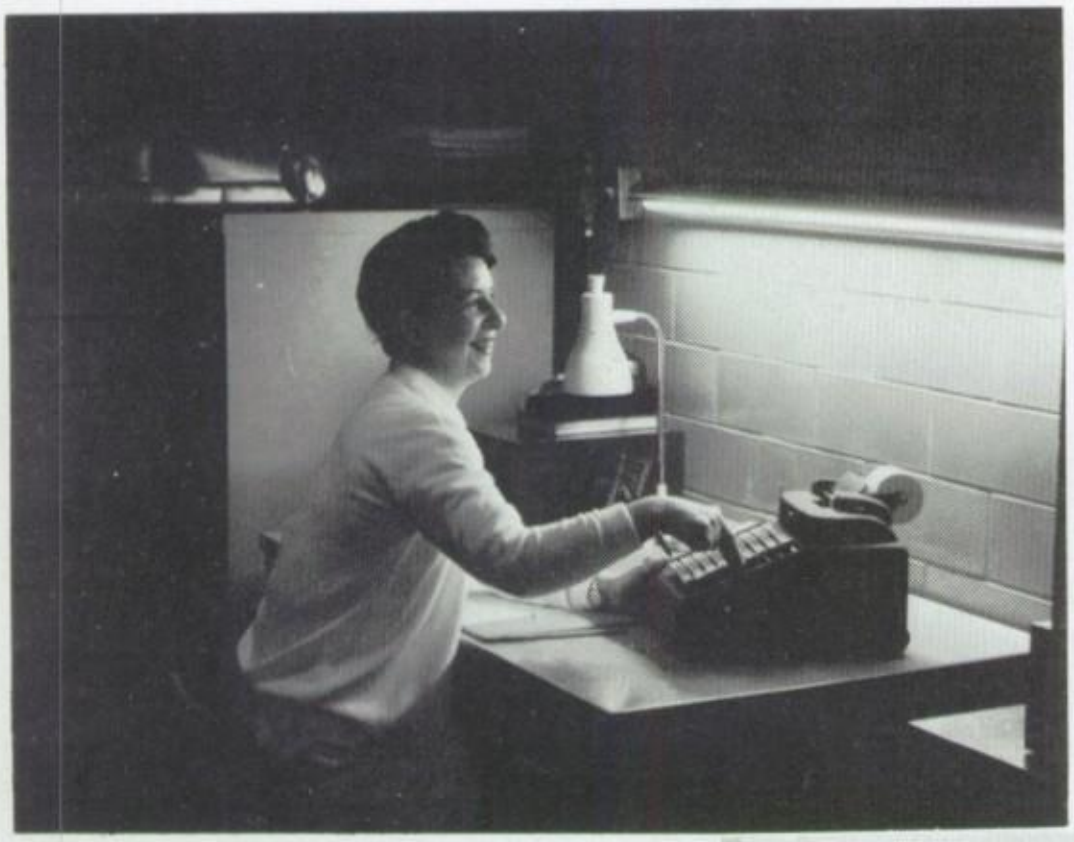
Through winter gales and spring thaws these men are as faithful to their duty of transporting students as mail carriers with their slogan—"It must go through." Little do we realize that without them, some of us wouldn't be traveling that road to further knowledge and future success.

R. Kinney; F. Magee; H. vonHagn; D. Wheaton.



T. McMahon; H. Baxter; K. Locey; H. Edwards; G. Marlatt

Professionals in their field, they do everything from keeping the grounds—to repairing, wiring, painting, and polishing. We are honored with their presence and grateful for the numerous tasks they perform beyond the call of duty.



Cafeteria Staff

Holiday treats and festive goodies can always be found as a special part of the cafeteria staff's numerous duties. Many thanks go to these diligent workers who are always striving to furnish our school with its hearty demands.

Their cheerful smiles and good food add so much to each day.

Class History

After being the first class to graduate from the Junior High School we moved "downstairs" for our first experience as members of the high school. For our freshmen officers we chose Sharon Squires to lead us as President, Jay Dickson as Vice President, Kitchie Shoemaker as Secretary and William Ormsby as Treasurer. We will never forget our first youth dance and its success and Miss Blair as our class advisor.

In our sophomore year at HCS we were a little more confident and our treasury began to grow under the direction of Kitty Ryniker as our President, Bob Hawk as her assistant, Larene Nichols served as the Secretary and Sharon Squires as the guardian of the money. We enlarged our funds for Washington with a sale of miniature letters and a very successful bake sale. Our first winning youth dance, "Winter Wonderland," was a highlight of the year. We were on our way.

We had another big step toward graduation when we became Juniors. For this year we chose Larene Nichols to become our President, Darlene Manning took care of the paper work as our Secretary and Karen Knapp served as the Treasurer. We chose Kitty Ryniker and Gary Taylor to run for the vice presidency of the Student Council. "Vote for Kitty." "Cast your Ballot for Gary." We made an increase in our treasury with our pencil sale. We will never forget our successful Junior Prom, "Sayonara," with our handsome King Jay Dickson, and our beautiful Queen, Joanne Mowchan. Our Prince Bill Kastner, and our Princess Doris Rumsey made up the royalty. The Junior Senior Banquet was the most painful attack on our pocketbooks.

Finally we made it – we were seniors after three years of long waiting. We chose Bill Kastner to lead us to Washington as our President. Dick Seybolt served as Vice President, Joanne Mowchan was our Secretary and Dick Gallagher took care of the treasury. We chose Bob Gallagher and Bonnie Dennis to run for the presidency of the Student Council. We will always remember our magazine campaign which was very successful and very profitable and our extra money from our refreshment stand at the football games. We will never forget our "Crystal Christmas" Senior Ball with Jay Dickson as our King, Linda Jessup as our Queen, Bob Gallagher and Suzanne Goldman as their attendants and our Senior Play "You Can't Take It with You." Finally we have reached the highlight of our Senior year, our trip to Washington and all the fun we had. Then our Senior Day Assembly and its joy, and finally the night of graduation.

Through the years at Haverling we have lived the best part of our lives. We will never forget what we did at our Alma Mater – Haverling.

SAYONARA

May 2, 1958

Joanne Mowchan made a charming Empress and Jay Dickson a handsome Emperor with Doris Rumsey and Bill Kastner as Princess and Prince.

L. Hojnoski; K. Mattison; Mr. and Mrs. Quinn; R. Hawk; K. Reed; R. Seybolt; L. Kenzie; M. French; S. Nichols; J. Alverman; E. Clayson.

William Kastner; Jay Dickson; Joanne Mowchan; Doris Rumsey

Paper lanterns, cherry blossoms and graceful pagodas made the enchanting world of Sayonara.

Some couples sat on pillows and talked while others danced to the music of the Glass City Guys.

The big moment came with the striking of the gong to announce the Royalty.

All too soon, the evening ended, leaving only memories of a wonderful time as we say Sayonara—Japanese goodbye.

Gary Taylor; Larene Nichols; Sarah Nichols; Mike French; Lyndon Robie; Karen Evans.

CRYSTAL CHRISTMAS

December 26, 1958

Tension mounts as the big moment of the evening draws nearer. Waiting for the crowning are: B. Fitzwater; D. Murphy; J. Byers; D. Rumsey; P. Mann; J. Neylon; A. Giacomini; S. Kropp and J. Mowchan.

Amid wild applause and bright flash bulbs, Linda Jessup was crowned Queen; Jay Dickson, King; Suzanne Goldman, Princess; Bob Gallagher, Prince; and Dave Snyder and Sharon Squires, Pages.

After the excitement of the coronation, the refreshment stand resumes its popularity. Among those showing interest here are B. Ormsby; J. Mann; K. Reed; E. Slivinski, and S. Ward.

Class Will

We, the senior class of 1959, being reasonably sound in body and mind, do hereby bequeath our earthly possessions to the class of 1960 with the sincere wish that they use them to the best of their ability.

To Linda Kenzie we leave Bob Hawk's ability to work with the yearbook staff.

To Sarah Nichols we leave Bonnie Dennis's way with words.

To Howie Veit we leave Sam Repass's all-around athletic ability.

To Phyllis Berhannan we leave Kathy Daulton's gift for singing off-key.

To the editor of next year's High Spots we leave Kitty Ryniker's formula for collecting assignments.

To Dave Sliney we leave Mike Weisberg's secret for reaching the basket.

To Judy Van Gelder we leave Joanne Mowchan's never-failing wit.

To Duane Repass we leave Dick Seybolt's secret for making people laugh.

To the Captain of the cheerleaders we leave Sharon Squire's ability to keep a good squad.

To Diane Ames we leave Kitchie Shoemaker's sparkling eyes.

To Gordon Muck we leave Mike French's all-around pleasantness.

To Ron Gardiner we leave Jim Neylon's ambition.

To Barbara French we leave Judy Snyder's lovely, sparkling smile.

To Tom Sliney we leave John Hewlett's well used brain.

To Sue Mowchan we leave Larene Nichol's "I aim to please" personality.

To Glenn Beckman we leave Linda Jessup's ease on the easel.

To Dean Kropp we leave Bill Kastner's good looks in capturing the hearts of Haverling's fairest.

To Barbara Fitzwater we leave Sharon Dickson's knack for wiggling out of predicaments.

To Diane Norcross we leave Alma Giacomini's all-around "cuteness."

To Phil Dickson we leave Jay Dickson's knack for getting along with people.

To Mrs. Tate we leave a case of scratch paper in hopes that she'll have enough next year.

Under the direction of Haverling's new football coach John Northrup, the Ramblers ended the season with a 2 win and 6 loss record. This year was hard on the team as far as injuries were concerned; both during the regular season and before the actual playing began there were Rams injured.

Although the Ramblers did not bring the jug back to Haverling the boys played a good game. The student support at this game was tremendous. One thing that had hindered the team before was the lack of student support; this year when the team was well-supported you could see a definite improvement in their playing.

The team worked out of a single wing offense during the regular season and tried to surprise Painted Post with a double wing. The single wing was new to the players and thus accounted for the first loss of the season.

When the Rams met Homer they played one of the best games of the season with Sam Repass starring for three touchdowns. They defeated Homer 27-12.

In the Horseheads game the Rams were at their weakest. Through injuries they were without Bob Gallagher, Larry Bennett, Dennis Brush, and when the game was over Howie Veit and Dick Gallagher had been injured.

Overall the Rams played good football. Although losing a heartbreaker to Canisteo, 7 to 6, the team never lost their spirit. They were always in there fighting for Haverling.
